

ARALDICA

Brachetto d'Acqui DOCG Spumante

Color

Pale ruby red

Aroma

Aromatic with fresh crushed raspberries and rose

Palate

The palate is sparkling and grapey with fresh red berry fruit. The sweetness is perfectly balanced by mouth-watering acidity and a delicate fruity finish.

Grape variety

Brachetto

Area

The Monferrato hills, Piemonte. South West aspects at altitudes between 250 and 400m. Limestone-clay soil.

Vineyards

Piemonte low Guyot trellis. Planting density 4,000 - 4,500 vines/ha.

Food Match

Great aperitif, and perfect for a summers' afternoon drinking. Also goes well with chocolate desserts and fruit salads.
